Specific tariff features, e.g. a usage allowance per month, shall not be aggregated across multiple resold services. Resold services cannot be used to aggregate traffic from more than one end user customer.

C. Reseller may resell services only within the specific resale service area as defined in its certificate.

D. Telephone numbers transmitted via any resold service feature are intended solely for the use of the end user of the feature. Resale of this information is prohibited.

E. No patent, copyright, trademark or other proprietary right is licensed, granted or otherwise transferred by this Agreement. Reseller is strictly prohibited from any use, including but not limited to sales, marketing or advertising, of any CenturyTel name or trademark.

- E. Reseller will be CenturyTel's single point of contact for all repair calls on behalf of Reseller's end users. The parties agree to provide one another with toll-free contact numbers for such purposes.
- F. Reseller will contact the appropriate repair centers in accordance with procedures established by CenturyTel.
- G. For all repair requests, Reseller accepts responsibility for adhering to CenturyTel's prescreening guidelines prior to referring the trouble to CenturyTel.
- H. CenturyTel will bill Reseller for handling troubles that are found not to be in CenturyTel's network pursuant to its standard time and material charges. The standard time and material charges will be no more than what CenturyTel charges to its retail customers for the same services.
- I. CenturyTel reserves the right to contact Reseller's end user, if deemed necessary, for maintenance purposes in an emergency or as a result of a service call, which Reseller may initiate. If CenturyTel contacts a Reseller end user, CenturyTel will use commercially reasonable efforts under the circumstances to notify Reseller of such contact within a reasonable amount of time.

VI. Establishment of Service

- A. After receiving certification as a local exchange company from the appropriate regulatory agency, Reseller will provide the appropriate CenturyTel service center the necessary documentation to enable CenturyTel to establish an account for Reseller. Such documentation shall include the Application for Service, proof of authority to provide services, an Operation Company Number ("OCN") assigned by the National Exchange Carriers Association ("NECA") and a tax exemption certificate, if applicable. When necessary deposit requirements are met, CenturyTel will begin taking orders for the resale of service.
- B. Service orders will be in a standard format designated by CenturyTel.
- C. When notification is received from Reseller that a customer or potential customer of CenturyTel requests to subscribe to Reseller's service, standard service order intervals for the appropriate class of service will apply. The services of CenturyTel sold by Reseller shall specifically be subject to any restrictions, exclusions, terms or conditions contained in the CenturyTel Tariffs or rate sheets as they exist, or as may be subsequently amended or revised at the option of CenturyTel.
- D. CenturyTel will require end user confirmation that the customer account has been cleared/charged off prior to establishing service for Reseller's end user customer.
- E. Reseller will be the single point of contact with CenturyTel for all subsequent ordering activity resulting in additions or changes to resold services except that CenturyTel will accept a request directly from the end user for conversion of the end user's service from Reseller to CenturyTel or will accept a request from another CLEC for conversion of the end user's service from the Reseller to the other CLEC. CenturyTel will notify Reseller that such a request has been processed.
- F. If CenturyTel determines that an unauthorized change in local service to Reseller has occurred, CenturyTel will reestablish service with the appropriate local service provider and will assess Reseller as the CLEC initiating the unauthorized change, an unauthorized change charge. Appropriate nonrecurring charges, as set forth in the General Subscriber Service Tariff, will also be assessed to Reseller.

These charges can be adjusted if Reseller provides satisfactory proof of authorization.

	Nonrecurring Charge for Unauthorized change
(a) each Residence or Business line	$50.00

- G. CenturyTel will, in order to safeguard its interest, require Reseller to make a deposit to be held by CenturyTel as a guarantee of the payment of rates and charges, unless satisfactory credit has already been established. . At any time prior to the termination of the Agreement, the deposit will be refunded or credited to the account after Reseller has established a one-year prompt payment record.
- H. Such deposit may not exceed two months' estimated billing.
- I. The fact that a deposit has been made in no way relieves Reseller from complying with CenturyTel's regulations as to advance payments and the prompt payment of bills on presentation nor does it constitute a waiver or modification of the regular practices of CenturyTel providing for the discontinuance of service for non-payment of any sums due CenturyTel.
- J. CenturyTel reserves the right to increase the deposit requirements when, in its sole judgment, the conditions justify such action subject to Section VI.H.
- K. In the event that Reseller defaults on its account, service to Reseller will be terminated, pursuant to Section VIII.B., and any deposits held will be applied to its account.
- L. In the case of a cash deposit interest at the rate of six percent per annum shall be paid to Reseller during the continuance of the deposit. Interest on a deposit shall accrue annually and, if requested, shall be annually credited to Reseller by the accrual date.
- M. CenturyTel will provide 911 services to Reseller end users in the same manner that CenturyTel provides such services to its own end users. Reseller will provide CenturyTel with up to date name and address information for each Reseller end user for purposes of maintaining the 911 Master Street and Address Guide.
- N. CenturyTel shall process Reseller's service orders, including but not limited to orders to add or remove services and to suspend, restore or disconnect services, within the same time frame it provides such services to its own end users.

VII. Payment And Billing Arrangements

- A. Reseller will be responsible for all charges that are billed on each resold account. CenturyTel will bank draft the Reseller's account for receiving payment for each of the bills rendered to the Reseller for all services. CenturyTel will not become involved in billing disputes that may arise between Reseller and its customer.
- B. CenturyTel will render bills each month on established bill days for each of Reseller's accounts. Both Parties will use best efforts to resolve any billing disputes. If the dispute is resolved in CenturyTel's favor and Reseller has not already paid the disputed amount, then the late payment penalty set forth in Section VII.G will apply. If the dispute is resolved in Reseller's favor and Reseller has already paid the disputed amount, Reseller will receive a credit for such amount. The Reseller has the right to seek arbitration regarding unresolved billing disputes, which exceed 60 days past the first notice.

- C. CenturyTel will bill Reseller, in advance, charges for all services to be provided during the ensuing billing period except charges associated with service usage, which charges will be billed in arrears. Charges will be calculated on an individual end user account level, including, if applicable, any charges for usage or usage allowances. CenturyTel will also bill all charges, including but not limited to 911 and E911 charges, telecommunications relay charges, and franchise fees, to Reseller.
- D. Payment is due as specified by the payment due date on the bills. However, CenturyTel will draft the accounts ten days after the bill date.
- E. Upon proof of tax exempt certification from Reseller, the total amount billed to Reseller will not include any taxes due from the end user. Reseller will be solely responsible for the computation, reporting and payment of all federal, state and/or local jurisdiction taxes associated with the services resold to the end user.
- F. As the customer of record, Reseller will be responsible for, and remit to CenturyTel, all charges applicable to its resold services for emergency services (E911 and 911) and Telecommunications Relay Service (TRS), as well as any other charges of a similar nature.
- G. If any portion of the payment is received by CenturyTel after the payment due date, or if any portion of the payment is received by CenturyTel in funds that are not immediately available to CenturyTel, then a late payment penalty shall be due to CenturyTel. The late payment penalty shall be the portion of the payment not received by the payment due date times a late factor. The late factor shall be as set forth in the General Subscriber Service Tariff.
- H. Any intrastate or interstate access charges associated with interexchange carrier access to the resold local exchange lines will be billed by, and due to, CenturyTel. No additional charges are to be assessed to Reseller.
- I. CenturyTel will not perform billing and collection services for Reseller as a result of the execution of this Agreement. All requests for billing services should be referred to the appropriate entity or operational group within CenturyTel.
- J. Pursuant to 47 CFR Section 51.617, CenturyTel will bill Reseller the end user common line charges identical to the charges which CenturyTel bills its end users.
- K. In general, CenturyTel will not become involved in disputes between Reseller and Reseller's end user customers over resold services. If a dispute does arise that cannot be settled without the involvement of CenturyTel, Reseller shall contact the designated Customer Service Center for resolution. CenturyTel will make every effort to assist in the resolution of the dispute and will work with Reseller to resolve the matter in as timely a manner as possible. Reseller may be required to submit documentation to substantiate the claim.

VIII. Discontinuance of Service

- A. The procedures for discontinuing service to an end user are as follows:
 - 1. Where possible, CenturyTel will deny service to Reseller's end user on behalf of, and at the request of Reseller. Upon restoration of the end user's service, restoral charges will apply and will be the responsibility of Reseller.
 - 2. At the request of Reseller, CenturyTel will disconnect a Reseller end user customer.
 - 3. All requests by Reseller for denial of disconnection of an end user for nonpayment must be in writing.

4. Reseller will be made solely responsible for notifying the end user of the proposed disconnection of the service.
5. CenturyTel will process calls made to the Customer Service Centers and will advise Reseller when it is determined that annoyance calls are originated from one of their end user's locations. CenturyTel shall be indemnified, defended and held harmless by Reseller and/or the end user against any claim loss or damage arising from providing this information to Reseller. It is the responsibility of Reseller to take the corrective action necessary with its customers who make annoying calls. Failure to do so will result in CenturyTel's disconnecting the end user service.

B. The procedures for discontinuing service to Reseller are as follows:

1. CenturyTel reserves the right to suspend or terminate service for nonpayment or in the event of prohibited, unlawful or improper use of the facilities or service, abuse of the facilities, or any other violation or noncompliance by Reseller of the rules and regulations of CenturyTel's Tariffs.
2. If payment of account is not received by the bill day in the month after the original bill day, CenturyTel may provide written notice to Reseller, that additional applications for service will be refused and that any pending orders for service will not be completed if payment is not received by the fifteenth day following the date specified in the notice, and Reseller's noncompliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude CenturyTel's right to refuse additional applications for service without further notice.
3. If payment of account is not received, or arrangements made, by the bill day in the second consecutive month, the account will be considered in default and will be subject to denial or disconnection, or both.
4. If Reseller fails to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, including any payments to be made by it on the dates and times herein specified, CenturyTel may, on thirty days written notice to the person designated by Reseller to receive notices of noncompliance, discontinue the provision of existing services to Reseller at any time thereafter. In the case of such discontinuance, all billed charges, as well as applicable termination charges, shall become due. If CenturyTel does not discontinue the provision of the services involved on the date specified in the thirty days notice, and Reseller's noncompliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude CenturyTel's right to discontinue the provision of the services to Reseller without further notice.
5. If payment is not received or arrangements made for payment by the date given in the written notification, Reseller's services will be discontinued. Upon discontinuance of service on a Reseller's account, service to Reseller's end users will be denied. CenturyTel will also reestablish service at the request of the end user of Reseller upon payment of the appropriate connection fee and subject to CenturyTel normal application procedures. Reseller is solely responsible for notifying the end user of the proposed disconnection of the service.
6. Subject to applicable State law or Commission regulation, if no contact has been made in reference to restoring service within fifteen days after an end user service has been denied, the end user service will be disconnected.

IX. Liability

- A. The liability of CenturyTel for damages arising out of mistakes, omissions, interruptions, preemptions, delays, errors or defects in transmission, or failures or defects in facilities furnished by CenturyTel, occurring in the course of furnishing service or other facilities and not caused by the negligence of Reseller, or of CenturyTel in failing to maintain proper standards of maintenance and operation and to exercise reasonable supervision shall in no event exceed an amount equivalent to the proportionate charge to Reseller for the period of service during which such mistake, omission, interruption, preemption, delay, error or defect in transmission or defect or failure in facilities occur. CenturyTel shall not be liable for damage arising out of mistakes, omission, interruptions, preemptions, delays, errors or defects in transmission or other injury, including but not limited to injuries to persons or property from voltages or currents transmitted over the service of CenturyTel, (1) caused by customer-provided equipment (except where a contributing cause is the malfunctioning of a CenturyTel-provided connecting arrangement in which event the liability of CenturyTel shall not exceed an amount equal to a proportional amount of CenturyTel billing for the period of service during which such mistake, omission, interruption, preemption, delay, error, defect in transmission or injury occurs), or (2) not prevented by customer-provided equipment but which would have been prevented had Company-provided equipment been used.
- B. Both Parties shall be indemnified and saved harmless by each other against any and all claims, actions, causes of action, damages, liabilities, or demands (including the costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees, on account thereof) of whatever kind or nature that may be made by any third party as a result of CenturyTel's acts or omissions regarding the furnishing of service to Reseller or as a result of Reseller's use of service.
- C. Both Parties shall be indemnified, defended and held harmless by each other and/or the end user against any claim, loss or damage arising from the use of services offered for resale involving:
1. Claims for libel, slander, invasion of privacy or infringement of copyright arising from Reseller's or end user's own communications.
 2. Claims for patent infringement arising from acts combining or using CenturyTel services in connection with facilities or equipment furnished by the end user or Reseller.
 3. All other claims arising out of an act or omission of Reseller or its end user in the course of using CenturyTel's services.

Information received from distribution, disclosure or dissemination to anyone except employees of the parties with a need to know such Information and which employees agree to be bound by the terms of this Section. Both parties will use the same standard of care to protect Information received, as they would use to protect their own confidential and proprietary Information.

- B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, both parties agree that there will be no obligation to protect any portion of the Information that is either: 1) made publicly available by the owner of the Information or lawfully disclosed by a nonparty to this Agreement; 2) lawfully obtained from any source other than the owner of the Information; or 3) previously known to the receiving party without an obligation to keep it confidential.
